Marco-Junior Cato is an exciting young seam-bowling all-rounder from South Africa who is regarded as one of the brightest emerging prospects within Boland cricket.

A highly regarded young cricketer, Marco's representative experience at the prestigious Coke Week has resulted in him being classified as a Pathway Player under ECB regulations, meaning he is currently seeking overseas opportunities outside of the United Kingdom.

With aspirations of progressing into the professional game, Marco has continued to build an impressive résumé in South Africa. The young seamer represented Boland during the 2024/25 season, further demonstrating his standing within the provincial system and providing him with valuable exposure at a higher level.

At club level, Marco represents Paarl Cricket Club in the Boland Premier League, where he has developed into an influential performer across both disciplines. Over the past 12 months, he has amassed an outstanding 1,000+ runs while also claiming 40 wickets, numbers that underline his genuine all-round ability and capacity to impact matches with both bat and ball.

Primarily a seam-bowling all-rounder, Marco offers a genuine wicket-taking option while also possessing the ability to make substantial contributions with the bat. His performances at Premier League and provincial level highlight the exciting potential he possesses as he continues to push towards his ambition of playing the game professionally.

Now eager to gain his first experience overseas, Marco is looking to test himself in European conditions, experience a different style of cricket and fully immerse himself in his chosen club's culture both on and off the field.

Marco would be an exciting addition to any European club seeking a genuine seam-bowling all-rounder ahead of the 2027 season.
