Matt Eldridge (26) is a technically sound opening batter from Berkshire, England.

Eldridge hones his craft at Finchampstead Cricket Club, competing in the Home Counties Premier Cricket League, where he plays a key role in the Club's Second XI. A former Second XI captain for five consecutive seasons, Matt brings proven leadership and a calm, assured presence at the top of the order.

Known for his composure at the crease and classical stroke play, the right-hander has built a reputation for his solid defensive technique and ability to patiently see off the new ball. Once set, Matt expands his game with fluency and precision. He has started the 2025 season in fine form, amassing over 300 runs at an average of 69.75, including a highest score of 110 not out.

A former skipper in Thames Valley Division 2, Eldridge has strong cricketing intelligence and remains a consistent and dependable performer. With his eyes now set on pushing for regular First XI selection, his recent form signals he's ready to take that next step.

In the field, Matt is athletic, sharp, and reliable—his catching ability and energy make him a valuable asset in any side.

Now looking to test himself in overseas conditions, Matt is eager to gain experience in Australian club cricket and further develop his all-round game in diverse environments.

A valuable signing for any Club seeking a dependable top-order batter, leader, and committed team player.
