Matty Johnson is a technically sound top-order batter who has risen through every level at his home club, Astwood Bank CC. Now a dependable presence in both the 1st and 2nd XI squads, he is recognised for his composure at the crease and his ability to construct innings under pressure. Averaging in the low 30s across formats this season, Matty consistently contributes valuable runs, whether setting a platform or accelerating in the latter stages of an innings.

A natural leader, Matty captained the Sunday XI to a successful promotion campaign last year and currently serves as vice-captain of the 2nd XI. His strong work ethic, calm demeanor, and team-first approach make him a trusted figure both on and off the field.

Eager to challenge himself in new conditions, Matty is actively seeking an opportunity to play cricket in Australia. His aim is to further his development—technically, tactically, and mentally—while contributing meaningfully to a club environment overseas. He is particularly enthusiastic about embracing the cricketing culture in Australia, forging new connections, and gaining life experience alongside his sporting growth.

Clubs seeking a reliable top-order option with leadership experience, a strong team mentality, and a hunger to improve would find Matty a valuable asset.
