Max Richards (18) is a talented young wicket-keeper batsman from Bristol, England.

An organised right-handed top-order batter, Max is a product of the Gloucestershire County Cricket Club pathway program, representing the County up until the age of 16. Now transitioning into senior Cricket, the stumper plays for Frenchay CC in the Bristol & District Cricket Association.

Predominantly playing 2nd XI Cricket for Frenchay, Max chalked up 423 runs in 18 games at an average of 26.33 since the start of the 2023 season. Playing a bit part role in the clubs 1st XI over the years, the 18-year-old made his debut back in 2022 and has since gone on to play 17 games at 1st XI level.

Since the beginning of 2022, Max has picked up 32 catches and 12 stumpings at senior level, already establishing himself as a reliable gloveman. In Junior Cricket, highlights of Max's recent years would be striking a mammoth 238 not out in a Sunday XI fixture back in 2021.

With another UK season under his belt by the end of September, the youngster is now set to head down-under for the 2024/25 season. Max will turn out for Rockingham Hornets in the Peel Cricket Association for their upcoming campaign.
