MD Al Amin is an impressive all-rounder from Bangladesh, offering a valuable combination of top-order batting and off-spin bowling.

A consistent performer throughout his professional career, Al Amin has established himself as one of the most reliable players in Bangladesh's domestic circuit. Batting in the top order, he maintains strong averages in the mid-30s in both First-Class and List A cricket, while also contributing significantly with the ball.

Across his professional career, he has scored 9 centuries and 42 half-centuries, demonstrating both consistency and the ability to play match-defining innings. As a genuine all-rounder, he has also been highly effective with the ball, claiming 115 professional wickets. His impact has been particularly notable in white-ball cricket, where he has recorded three five-wicket hauls, including a best of 6/22.

Despite his consistent performances, Al Amin has been unfortunate not to break into the senior national side. However, his talent has been recognised through selection for Bangladesh A and the Bangladesh Under-19 teams.

Now setting his sights on his first UK season, MD Al Amin would be a fantastic addition for any club seeking a genuine all-rounder with significant professional experience. His ability to contribute in all facets of the game makes him a valuable asset both on and off the field.
