MD (Mohammad) Mithun is one of Bangladesh's most accomplished and consistent cricketers of the past decade—an experienced top-order batter and wicket-keeper who has also proven himself as a handy off-spinner. With a decorated domestic and international career behind him, Mithun continues to be a standout performer in all formats.

Renowned for his elegant stroke play and cricketing intelligence, Mithun has built an impressive record across Bangladesh's domestic circuit. In first-class cricket, he boasts a career-best score of 206 and averages in the mid-30s—highlighting his ability to build long innings. In List A matches, his top score of 121* and a near-identical average confirm his consistency in the 50-over format. In T20s, his best of 84* showcases his adaptability and capacity to accelerate when needed, maintaining a solid average in the shortest format. His off-spin bowling, too, adds another string to his bow—demonstrated by a stunning 7/75 in a first-class outing.

His consistency at the domestic level earned him the ultimate honour: international selection. Mithun represented Bangladesh in 10 Tests, 34 ODIs, and 17 T20 Internationals. While he wasn't a permanent fixture in the Test side, he made a notable impact with two half-centuries, including a composed 67 on debut against Zimbabwe and a fluent 63 against a potent Pakistan bowling attack featuring Shaheen Shah Afridi, Naseem Shah, and Yasir Shah. In ODIs, Mithun found his groove, amassing six half-centuries at an average of 27.46—solid returns in a highly competitive national setup. He also proudly represented Bangladesh at global tournaments, including the 2009 and 2016 T20 World Cups, and the 2019 ODI World Cup.

Now in the latter stages of his career, Mithun remains as driven and effective as ever. He continues to be a key figure for Chittagong in the Bangladesh Premier League, offering leadership, stability, and match-winning experience. Fellow Bangladesh international Enamul Haque speaks highly of Mithun, endorsing him as an ideal professional for club cricket—someone who brings not only performance but also mentorship and professionalism.

For any club seeking a high-calibre overseas player with genuine international pedigree, MD Mithun is an exceptional option. He brings a wealth of experience, versatility with bat and gloves, and the temperament to thrive in pressure situations—qualities that make him a standout choice for any competitive side.
