Megan McColl is a Scotland Women’s international cricketer and a talented batting all-rounder who bowls off-spin. Since debuting in 2019, she has earned 43 caps across T20I and ODI formats, playing a key role in Scotland’s success.

She has represented Scotland since age 15, progressing through U17s and the performance academy before joining the senior squad at 17. Notable performances include a match-winning 5/3 (4) vs. France in the 2021 ICC European WCQs and a crucial 50 in the 2024 T20 Global WCQ semi-final vs. Ireland, securing Scotland’s place in the 2024 World Cup.

Megan has played club and regional cricket across Scotland, Australia, and England, excelling in leadership roles. In 2024/25, she starred for Subiaco-Floreat in WACA Women’s A Grade, taking 27 wickets at 11.30 (best 7/28) and scoring 230 runs at 25.56. She has also competed in men’s cricket, scoring 80 in a 45-over match for Arbroath United CC (2021).

A qualified coach, Megan is Head of Women’s & Girls’ Cricket at Watsonian CC and Assistant Coach for Scotland U15 Girls. She aims to secure a regular Scotland XI spot, continue developing her game, and pursue a fully professional cricket career abroad.
