Meghana Sabbineni is a proven international with a decorated career, this dynamic all-rounder has been part of the Indian women's team since 2022 and holds a Grade C BCCI contract. She is currently a key figure for Royal Challengers Bengaluru in the Women's Premier League, having been part of the competition since its inception and a crucial member of RCB's 2024 title-winning side—retained again for 2025.

Her international honours include two Asia Cup victories, a Commonwealth Games silver medal, and consistent contributions across both ODI and T20 formats for India. Domestically, she has been a dominant force, winning seven consecutive titles with Indian Railways and now captaining Andhra in the national circuit.

With over 2,300 List A runs at an average above 31 and more than 2,200 T20 runs at a strike rate above 100, she blends experience, consistency, and the ability to perform under pressure. A versatile contributor with the ball and safe hands in the field, she offers the complete package for any side seeking a proven match-winner with leadership pedigree and championship experience.
