Mitch Oliver (18) is an impressive all-rounder (spin) from Perth, Australia.

Oliver is a front line leg spinner and right handed middle order batter, who plays in WACA Premier Cricket for Rockingham Mandurah District Cricket Club in the 1st Grade side, where he made his debut at 15.

Currently the all-rounder is leading the wickets in One Day Cricket for the club after topping the charts last year in the format as well. He is also an asset in the field with his high level of fitness. Recently has represented the Western Australian Under 19s team at the National Carnival in Albury. He has captained teams through junior ranks at Rockingham-Mandurah as well as being the current Colts captain.

The Aussie is also an impressive batter (has opened in red ball for the 1st Grade), and has always batted top order in junior cricket and moving through the grades, but has found opportunities at 1st Grade level very limited (Due to State players and strong white ball line up), but is keen to keep moving up the order when he gets a chance

The Aussie has recently signed for Ealing Cricket Club for their Middlesex County Cricket league campaign.
