Mo Arabi (22) is a stylish top order batter from Buckinghamshire, England, ready to take the next step in his cricketing journey with a season abroad.

A product of the Buckinghamshire County Cricket Club Academy and U18s pathway, Mo developed a strong technical foundation and cricketing intelligence from a young age, that continue to shape his game today.

While University commitments have limited Mo's Club Cricket involvement over the past 4-5 years, he has remained deeply involved in the game, representing Newcastle University's First XI in the top tier of the BUCS League—a highly competitive environment that has kept his skills sharp and game-ready.

Now signed with Marlow Cricket Club for the 2025 season in the Home Counties Premier League, Mo is aiming to make an immediate impact and contribute to the Club's push for promotion.

Set to graduate this summer, Mo is fully committed to taking his game overseas, with his sights set on Australia. His goal is to immerse himself in a new cricketing culture, test his skills in unfamiliar conditions, and take his game to the next level.

In addition to his batting credentials, Mo also offers useful medium pace and is widely regarded as one of the top fielders in his circuit, bringing energy and excellence across all three facets of the game.

A dedicated, self-financing cricketer, Mo would be a great asset to any Club looking for a top-order player with hunger, talent, and professionalism.
