Mohammad Ammar is a batting all rounder who has started his professional career with a bang.

A stylish top order batter with all the shots in the book, Mohammad is currently lighting up the domestic scene in Pakistan and has been earmarked as a player who has international cricket on his future radar. He currently sits in the top 3 leading run scorers in the Quaid-E-Azam Trophy with 373 runs at an average of 41.44, not bad for an 18 year old, and is clearly at the start of what is expected to be a long and distinguished career.

A Pakistan Under 19 international already, Mohammad comes recommended by decorated UK overseas professional Khalid Usman as a player who would light up the UK club cricket scene, not only with his undoubted talent, but his personality and character too. He is a regular off spin bowler and has been throughout his whole junior career, meaning he can fill a role as an all rounder overseas.

Captained by Pakistan international Abid Ali, Mohammad is showing his talent off at professional level, highlighted by a high quality 86, batting at number 4 for Bahawulpur against a Rawalpindi attack featuring the likes of Shadab Khan and Umar Amin. It is clear to see that he is a serious talent and a guy that would be a pleasure to host in 2025.

For any club seeking a genuine all rounder who can score big runs and bowl strong off spin, and a player with the world at his feet, Mohammad should be right at the top of your list. He is one to keep tabs on over the next few year for sure.
