Mohammad Saleem is a highly promising top-order batter and part-time leg-spinner who made serious waves in Pakistan’s domestic scene during the 2024/25 season—firmly establishing himself as one to watch.

After catching the eye in early 2023/24 with Faisalabad Region, where he piled on 290 runs at an average of 48.33, Saleem earned a well-deserved spot in the Pakistan Cup's Team of the Year. His standout performances with the bat were a clear indication of the talent he’s long been tipped to fulfil.

That promise materialized further in the Quaid-e-Azam Trophy, where he registered his maiden first-class century, a superb 117 for WAPDA against Khan Research Laboratories, underlining his potential in the longer format.

A product of Faisalabad’s age-group system, Saleem has consistently impressed through the junior ranks and made his first-class debut for WAPDA while still in his teens. Now, with experience under his belt and growing confidence, he’s beginning to show why he’s been so highly rated.

In addition to his batting prowess, Saleem also offers useful leg-spin, making him a valuable asset in any squad.

With domestic form on the rise and a growing reputation, Mohammad Saleem is now seeking his first UK club stint in 2026. He’s a composed and classy batter with the temperament and technique to succeed abroad—and a player we strongly recommend for clubs seeking a genuine long-term performer.
