Mohammad Sharifullah is an experienced all-rounder that graced the Bangladeshi domestic circuit for well over a decade.

During this period, he racked up well over 250 games, scored neigh on 6,000 runs and took 350 wickets across the three formats. He was been a stand-out performer for numerous sides, including Dhaka Metropolis, Dhaka Division, Prime Doleshwar Sporting Club, and at the height of his game, Central Zone, and Bangladesh A.

Sharifullah played with and against some of the biggest names in Bangladesh cricket. In fact, it's the legend that is Enamul Haque Jnr who recommends Sharifullah, who is now seeking a UK club stint in 2025 having played social Sunday cricket for Mighty Tigers (National Cricket League) last season striking 552 runs at 46.00 alongside 28 wickets at 17.14.

The off-spin bowling all-rounder is currently living in London (arrived on 17 July 2023) on a Residence Permit (Dependant Leave to Enter) and is seeking a club within striking distance next summer.

Under many league rules, Sharifullah could be deemed a Cat 1 local player due to the 210-day rule, but please confirm with your league prior to his signing.
