Moin Shah, a dedicated all-rounder from Cheshire, England.

Currently captaining the Second XI at his home Club, Cheadle Cricket Club in the Cheshire County Cricket League.

A composed top-order batter, Shah has led by example, amassing over 800 runs across the last two seasons at an average of 30, while guiding his side to multiple silverware wins. Alongside his batting credentials, Moin brings added value with his wily leg-spin, providing a vital second-dimension to any bowling attack.

Off the field, Moin is a qualified ECB Core Coach (Level 2) with a strong passion for youth development. He is eager to immerse himself into a club's junior coaching setup, sharing his experience and mentoring the next generation of cricketers.

With his working holiday visa already secured, Shah is looking to base himself in Melbourne or greater Victoria for the 2025/26 season, although he is open to opportunities anywhere in Australia or New Zealand.

A self-financing, well-rounded cricketer and leader. An ideal signing for any club seeking someone who contributes both on and off the field.
