Monalisa Legodi is one of South Africa's brightest young fast-bowling prospects, currently plying her trade with the Fidelity Titans Women.

A standout performer at both domestic and international levels, Monalisa has already etched her name in the record books as a 2023 ICC U19 Women's World Cup silver medalist, representing the Proteas U19.

Rising Through the Ranks

Since breaking onto the domestic scene with Northerns in 2019, Monalisa has developed into a key pace option for the Titans. Her raw pace, control, and match temperament make her a potent threat with the ball. Now a regular in the Titans setup, she continues to hone her craft with consistent performances.

International Highlights

2023 ICC U19 Women's T20 World Cup (South Africa):

Player of the Match recipient

Named Best Bowler in a match for a standout performance

Helped South Africa reach the final, finishing as runners-up

2023 U19 World Cup – Malaysia Leg:

Delivered match-winning spells and demonstrated composure on the global stage

Domestic Form: 2024/25 Season

Maintained an exceptional economy rate of 4.00, a testament to her consistency and control as a frontline pacer

Played a central role in the Titans' bowling unit with tight, attacking spells

Continues to mature as a leader in the pace attack

Future Aspirations

Now out of school, Monalisa is eyeing the next step in her cricket journey: selection for the South African Emerging Women's squad. With her current form, temperament, and international pedigree, she is well-positioned to break into the next tier and push for full national honours in the coming seasons.

What Sets Her Apart

Pace, precision, and game awareness beyond her years

Proven performer under pressure, both at home and abroad

Committed team player with leadership potential

Brings professionalism and maturity to every aspect of her game

With her star firmly on the rise, Monalisa Legodi is one to watch. Whether spearheading the Titans' attack or shining in national colours, she's proving that age is no barrier to excellence. A future Protea in the making.
