Mohammad Arif is a dynamic left-handed top-order batter who has quickly made waves in Pakistan’s professional cricket scene.

Recognized early on as a gifted talent, Arif earned selection to the Pakistan Under-19 squad in 2017, featuring in the Asia Cup alongside future stars like Shaheen Shah Afridi. Despite his early promise, his rise wasn’t overnight – he worked tirelessly at amateur levels before breaking into professional T20 cricket in 2023. His first-class and List A debuts followed shortly after, and by 2024, Arif had firmly established himself as a force to be reckoned with.

Currently boasting an astonishing List A batting average of 55.33 across just 8 matches, Arif has already recorded two half-centuries and a century in the format. His red-ball credentials are equally impressive, with two half-centuries and a century from only 9 first-class games. Blessed with a complete arsenal of shots, his talent is rare, and his career trajectory looks set to soar.

While primarily known for his batting prowess, Arif is also a keen off-spin bowler. Though yet to make significant impact with the ball at the professional level, he is confident that he can develop into a genuine all-rounder – a valuable asset in any club cricket setup.

Highly recommended by several CricX clients, Mohammad Arif is regarded as a perfect fit for UK professional cricket, combining talent, versatility, and raw potential. An exciting prospect, he comes with our strongest endorsement.
