Muhammad Farooq is a talented and exciting leg-spinner, currently making waves with the UAE national team.

Endorsed by former national teammate CP Rizwan, Muhammad has quickly established himself as a promising wrist spinner on the international circuit. His rise has been built on hard work, discipline, and a hunger to learn—traits that are evident in every spell he bowls. At the time of writing, he has represented the UAE in 2 One Day Internationals (against Namibia and Oman) and 8 T20 Internationals, showcasing his control, turn, and ability to deceive batters with genuine wrist spin.

Wrist spinners are in high demand, particularly in the shorter formats of the game, and Muhammad brings the rare combination of sharp turn and subtle variations that can be match-winning. His ability to give the ball a real rip makes him a genuine threat in all conditions.

In addition to his bowling prowess, Muhammad is a capable lower-order batter who can strike the ball cleanly and turn games in a few overs. He’s committed to developing this part of his game further during an overseas stint, where regular batting opportunities could elevate him into a genuine all-round asset.

Now looking to broaden his horizons, Muhammad is actively seeking an overseas professional opportunity for the 2026 season, particularly in Europe. He’s excited to bring his international experience to club cricket, not just to perform, but also to share knowledge and contribute to the development of younger players.

With his international pedigree, professional mindset, and all-round potential, Muhammad Farooq would be a standout signing for any club seeking a skilful leg-spinner and positive influence both on and off the field.
