Muhammed Mayet is a talented batting all-rounder playing for the Mpumalanga Rhinos in South African domestic cricket.

A player of considerable promise, Mayet bats 3 and bowls handy swing, often used as first change or as a holding bowler for the Rhinos.

Much has been expected of this talented all-rounder since he represented South Africa, alongside the likes of Proteas Wiaan Mulder, and Lutho Sipamla, in 9 ODI's during the 2016/17 season.

A Border, Gauteng, and Lions under-age star, Mayet broke into professional cricket for Gauteng during the 2017/18 season. He then enjoyed a breakthrough 2018/19 season hitting 321 runs at 40.21 in 6 first-class matches. Since then, he has gone on to play over 50 matches across the three formats where he has enjoyed success, particularly in the first-class and 50-over format.

Last summer (2022/23), Mayet moved to the Rhinos where he took on a key role for the side in Division 2 of the CSA 4-Day Series. He impressed scoring a ton (102) amongst 267 runs at 26.70 alongside a handful of wickets.

Following his domestic season, he returned to the UK, this time to Scotland to play for Ferguslie in the Western District Cricket Union (Premier Division). He was a stand-out hitting over 1,000 runs including 3 centuries not to mention a hatful of wickets. This season backed-up his maiden stint in England for Great Ayton in 2022.

A level 2 coach, Mayet is keen on his coaching and would like a strong club in 2025 to continue his development and get fully immersed in junior coaching.
