Muhammed Naeem (26) is a batting all-rounder from Birmingham, England.

A right-handed top-order batter, the Midlands all-rounder is currently playing for Kenilworth Cricket Club in Division Two of the Warwickshire County Cricket League.

After moving from Solihull at the conclusion of the 2024 season, the 26-year-old is now part of the Kenilworth 1st XI and has already struck his maiden half-century for the Club.

Also bowling his right-arm medium pace, Naeem is more than useful and has showed this throughout previous years. Taking senior wickets when required, no doubt the all rounder is capable of influencing the game with both bat and ball.

Seeking a stint in the Southern Hemisphere at the conclusion of the UK season, the Midlands based cricket lover headed to Baranduda Rangers for the 2025/26 Australian summer. In what was a difficult season for the club results wise, he was a success on and off the pitch, chipping in with 357 runs and 6 wickets alongside his support as a coach within the junior section.

Muhammad would represent a nice signing for any club looking for an all rounder who will buy in to the club ethos as a whole.
