Muslim Musa is a future superstar making his way through the Afghanistan ranks.

A youth prodigy, Musa represented Afghanistan Under-19s on 41 occasions, including the ICC Under-19 World Cups in 2014 (UAE), and 2016 (Bangladesh).

A genuine seam bowling all-rounder, Musa made his domestic debuts across the formats in 2017 and hasn't looked back forging quite the reputation on the Afghan circuit.

In 22 first-class games to date, he has best performances of 166 and 9-165 with bat, and ball, respectively.

He has been a key member of 4 championship-winning sides (3 x Shpageeza T20, 1 x First Class), and 2-time runner-up in first-class cricket (Ahmad Shah Abdali 4-Day).

Unsurprisingly, given his skill set (hard-hitting batter and opening bowler) he has been T20 regular in domestic cricket where he boasts impressive numbers, particularly with the ball.

Musa really is a star in the making who is now seeking an opportunity abroad. Someone highly recommended from our Afghan clients as someone with the potential to dominate club cricket.
