Myles Wood (19) a young wicket-keeper batter from Yorkshire, England.

A key member of Hanging Heaton Cricket Club's First XI in the prestigious Bradford Premier League, Myles has been a regular in the side for the past three seasons. Renowned for his sharp glovework and clean ball striking, he has started the 2025 season in fine form, averaging 35.67 with the bat.

A composed and technically sound right-hander, Myles is equally effective at rotating the strike and accelerating when needed. Behind the stumps, he is tidy, agile, and reliable – consistently contributing to his team's success with the gloves.

Now eager to take the next step in his cricketing journey, Myles is looking to spend the 2025/26 season in Australia. A winter abroad will offer him the opportunity to develop both facets of his game in new conditions, gain invaluable experience, and challenge himself at a higher level.

Notably, Myles holds an Australian passport, making him a highly attractive option for clubs seeking quality without visa complications.

An exciting young cricketer with a mature head on his shoulders, Myles Wood would be a superb addition to any club looking to strengthen their ranks with a dependable and driven wicket-keeper batter.
