NaiJanni Cumberbatch is widely regarded as one of the most exciting young prospects in Caribbean women's cricket. At just 18, the West Indies Women's player has already built an impressive résumé, combining elite-level experience with performances that mark her as a player ready for the global stage.

Her journey began at just 14, when she earned selection for the Barbados Senior Women's team—an early indication of her exceptional talent and composure. Since then, she has continued her rapid rise, representing West Indies at Under-19 level in two ICC Women's U19 World Cups, while gaining valuable experience across high-performance environments including West Indies A, the West Indies Academy, and the Barbados Royals in the Women's Caribbean Premier League.

Between 2023 and 2025, NaiJanni further developed her game in overseas conditions while on a cricket scholarship at Bede's Senior School in the UK, enhancing both her technical skills and tactical awareness.

A right-handed top-order batter and right-arm off-spinner, she is a genuine all-round match-winner. Over the past year, she has enjoyed a breakout period across formats. She dominated the 2025 CWI Rising Stars Women's Under-19 Championship, finishing as the tournament's leading wicket-taker with 17 wickets at an outstanding average of 3.82. Her impact carried into senior cricket, where she impressed in the T20 Blaze with her control and wicket-taking ability, before showcasing her batting quality in the Super50 with a composed, match-defining unbeaten 74 against the Leeward Islands.

An outstanding athlete, NaiJanni is also a dynamic fielder whose energy, agility, and awareness consistently influence the game. Whether saving crucial runs or creating opportunities in the field, she adds value in every phase.

Driven, ambitious, and highly professional, NaiJanni is focused on expanding her career on the global stage. With aspirations to play county cricket in the UK and secure further overseas franchise opportunities, she brings not only proven performance but also the mindset and discipline of a modern elite cricketer.
