Nangeyalia Kharote is an exceptional prospect destined for the big stage.

Having dominated the ICC Under-19 World Cup (Jan 2022) in the Caribbean (9 wickets at 16.44), the left-arm spinner has since excelled in various domestic tournaments in Afghanistan (Shpageeza T20, Wazir Mohammad Akbar Khan Provincial Grade One Day, and Mirwais Nika Regional 3-Day), and the Pakistan Junior League (Oct 2022).

Kharote is a genuine all-rounder – a left-arm orthodox spinner and hard-hitting batter capable of batting throughout the order. In fact, he opened the batting for Afghanistan in the Caribbean and filled the number 4 slot during his victorious PJJL campaign for the Bahawalpur Royals.

However, it's with the ball that Kharote is making a name for himself. He has starred in his 31 professional white ball outings to date with List A, and T20 averages of 16.31, and 18.61.

The Afghan all-rounder is set for stardom, mark our words, and courtesy of his domestic exploits he secured his T20I debut in March 2024.
