Nasir Totakhil is an outstanding spin bowling prospect coming through the Afghanistan ranks. The left-arm spinner made his respective debuts (FC, List A, T20) whilst in his teens, and currently plays in the star-studded Mis Ainak Region side.

Unfortunately for Totakhil, first-class opportunities have been limited to 11 matches, to date, mainly due to the strength of his side's spinners, including the likes of Zahir Khan, Shahidullah Kamal, and Zia ur Rehman who ripped up the Liverpool League in 2021 (85 wickets at 6).

However, Afghan domestic cricket returned last summer and Totakhil impressed for Mis Ainak, taking 8 wickets in 3 matches, alongside notable scores of 59*, and 73, to evidence his all-round ability.

The tweaker has also played regular white-ball cricket for sides including Amo Sharks, Kabul Zwanan, and Speen Ghar Tigers, where he has impressed. At the point of writing, he averages 19.66 in T20 cricket, all with an economy of 6.94. He's also exceptionally economical in both first-class (3.07), and List A (4.70) cricket.

The talented Afghani is quite the prospect and is now seeking opportunities abroad from 2023 onwards.
