Nathan Keevil (20) is an exciting seamer from Cornwall, England.

Keevil is a front line right arm quick who bowls with good pace and control. The Englishman is a product of the Cornwall County Cricket Club age group system, playing at various age group levels right up until 18s level, and in recent times has been part of the Senior squad and played in a handful of games for the Development side.

At club level Keevil plays for Grampound Road Cricket Club in the Cornwall Cricket League, and has taken nearly 50 wickets for the 1st XI side over the last 2 seasons at an economy rate of under 4 an over. In recent times he has been part of the World renowned PaceLab Academy run by Rajasthan Royals bowling coach and ex Somerset & Derbyshire Quick Steffan Jones, which has really pushed his game to the next level.

The Englishman has just finished University at Liverpool John Moores University and now keen to head overseas to develop his cricket. Keevil is not just a talented player, the impressive quick is keen to develop the clubs junior players whilst overseas. The youngster certainly ticks many boxes and he a more than handy recruit for any club seeking a talented quick...

The Seamer has recently signed for Newcomb & District Cricket Club in the Geelong Cricket Association for next season.
