Nathaniel Atkins is a hugely talented all-rounder from London, England.

Atkins is a powerful top order batter and impressive quick who has recently been clocked at 83mph. The all-rounder is in his last year at the famous Cranleigh School, where this year to date has nearly 600 runs for the 1st XI side at a touch over 40, with a high score of 105 in their win against the MCC.

At club level the youngster plays for the famous Ashtead Cricket Club, and is fresh off his maiden 1st XI hundred in the last round of the National KO, at club level he plays alongside Mark Stoneman & Adam Thomas of Surrey & also overseas star Simon Keane. Now the all-rounder has finished his studies he is available for the 2nd half of the season.

Atkins is also part of the Sussex 18s side and is hoping to gain a contract in the near future. The all-rounder is now attending ICP in Melbourne and seeking a good club in/around the city at a high standard.

No doubt a talent and one to keep an eye on....
