Nicholas Catt is a promising batting all-rounder playing for Old Parktonians (Old Parks) in Gauteng's Premier (1st XI) comp.

An opening, or top 4 batter who bowls brisk medium pace (and can keep wicket), Catt has started to establish himself at Premier club level, following a dominant school career. Catt also has a British Passport courtesy of his English born father, and comes highly recommended by former Somerset coach Dave Nosworthy.

Playing for Parktown Boys' High School, Catt was a stand-out in the 1st XI. He skippered the side towards the end of his schooling and was awarded full colours for cricket. Catt was also a Gauteng provincial age-group trialist in both 2018 and 2019.

Since leaving school the South African has been performing well in the Gauteng Premier comp, and has spent the UK 2025 season playing in the Kent Cricket League for Linton Park Cricket Club where he has scored nearly 700 runs at 39 with a high score of 11 for the 1st XI side.

Catt is also a qualified coach and umpire so happy to be part of a clubs junior coaching set up when in the UK.
