Nipun Haggalla is a tremendous batting talent playing for Bloomfield Cricket and Athletic Sports Club in Sri Lanka.

An explosive opening / top-order batter, who can either keep wicket or bowl off-spin, hit the headlines in April 2021 by striking a quite sensation 151 against Badureliya.

His 156-ball effort from the top of the order included 7 sixes and 11 fours. 4-days later, Haggalla produced another powerful innings - an 80-ball 81 against Kandy, taking his SLC Major Clubs Limited Over Tournament run tally to 299 at 59.90, all with a strike rate of 95.22.

Haggalla finally produced the level of performance to justify his ability. He had underperformed during the previous two first-class seasons, averaging 12 (2017/18) and 10.87 (2018/19), respectively.

However, in a view to developing his game, he spent the 2020/21 season down under, playing club cricket in Australia. After 456 runs at 38, including a highest score of 179 for Mackie in Victoria's South East Cricket Association, he returned home and excelled for Bloomfield in the 2021 One-Day Tournament.

Haggalla, who comes recommended by former Sri Lankan star, Chamara Silva, is currently playing for Dumbleton in the West of England Premier League. Follow his progress below.
