Nosipho Vezi is a medium pace bowler known for her variations with the ball. She is goal-driven, willing to adapt to the ethos of the team, and a very good team player. She comes from a Christian family background and continues to live out her faith in her day-to-day life. She is currently studying online towards her honours in Psychology, and is looking forward to learning about new cultures in the places her cricket takes her.

Vezi has been a mainstay of Western Province Women's attack since coming through as a teenager, and was selected for the SA Under-19 Phillies squad in 2018. She was the leading wicket-taker in 2021, and enjoyed a standout 2024 season in which she was awarded Best Bowler of the Pro50 series and named Player of the Year, having also been nominated by Cricket South Africa for the Pro50 series' best bowler award that year. Her strong form has continued since: she was named Best Bowler of the Pro20 series in 2026, and was recognised among the country's leading Pro50 bowlers the same year, with Cricket South Africa naming her among the honourees at the Cricket South Africa Awards 2026 for her Hollywoodbets Pro50 performances. She was subsequently named the player of the Pro50 series, and WP Player's Player of the Season.

Her dream is to move to the UK, where she hopes to build her cricket career further while embracing the opportunity to experience a new culture and make a positive impact on those around her.

One is for the player of the ODI series and the other is the Player's Player of the Season award
