At just 18 years old, Obaid Shahid is already making a significant impact on Pakistan's domestic cricket scene. A natural batting all-rounder, Obaid boasts an impressive First-Class average just under 40 and a standout List A average of 47, marking him as one of the most promising young talents in the country.

Obaid's journey to prominence started early, captaining the Bahawalpur Royals to victory in the Pakistan Junior League at just 15 years old, where he was deservedly named Player of the Tournament. This breakthrough led to his inclusion as a travelling reserve with Pakistan's U19 squad for both the Asia Cup and U19 World Cup, providing invaluable exposure to top-tier youth cricket.

Making his First-Class debut for Lahore Whites at 16, Obaid quickly announced himself by scoring a maiden half-century in his very first innings. Shortly after, he debuted in List A cricket for Higher Education Commission (HEC), becoming a reliable and consistent presence in the team.

Far from being just a batter, Obaid is a genuine all-rounder who regularly contributes with the ball at all levels he has played. His versatility, combined with calm composure and technical skill, make him a highly valuable asset for any club.

With his talent and dedication, Obaid Shahid is destined to be a future star and an exciting prospect who has signed for Elton Cricket Club in the Greater Manchester Cricket League for their 2026 campaign.
