Obaid Shahid, the rising sensation from Lahore, Pakistan.

Don't let his age fool you! At just 17, Obaid Shahid is already creating waves in Pakistan's domestic cricket. With a remarkable First-Class average just under 40 and a stellar List A average of 47, this batting all-rounder is the name on everyone's lips in the domestic circuit.

Obaid's meteoric rise began at 15 when he captained the Bahawalpur Royals to victory in the Pakistan Junior League, earning the title of Player of the Tournament for his outstanding performances. This success paved the way for his selection as a travelling reserve for Pakistan's U19 squad in the Asia Cup and World Cup, offering him invaluable exposure at the highest level of youth cricket.

At just 16, Obaid made his First-Class debut for Lahore Whites, where he scored a maiden half-century in his very first innings. A List A debut soon followed as he represented Higher Education Commission (HEC), quickly becoming one of the most dependable names on the team sheet. By no means a one trick pony, Obaid is a regular bowler and has been utilised at all levels he has played so far, he would be a genuine all rounder in club cricket.

With his talent, composure, and consistent performances, Obaid Shahid is destined for greatness. The young Pakistani will turn 18 by the time the 2025 UK season commences, making him an exciting and highly valuable addition to any club. He is a star in the making.
