Obuya Robinson is a talented and ambitious top-order batter, currently making his mark on the international stage with the Ugandan national team.

Still in the early stages of his professional journey, Obuya has already accumulated 38 T20 International caps, firmly establishing himself as a regular in Uganda's T20 setup. A composed and technically sound batter, he combines elegant strokeplay with the mental toughness required to succeed at the highest level. His energy and athleticism also make him a valuable asset in the field.

A major milestone in his career came with selection for the 2024 ICC T20 World Cup, a proud moment that underscored his rise in the international game. Representing Uganda on cricket's biggest T20 stage, Obuya faced off against elite opposition including the West Indies and New Zealand. The experience of facing world-class players such as Akeal Hosein, Andre Russell, and Alzarri Joseph has had a profound impact on him, fuelling his determination to elevate his game and broaden his horizons.

Now a key figure in Uganda's national side, Obuya is eager to continue his development by playing in overseas conditions and is actively seeking an overseas professional opportunity for the 2026 season. With international experience, a hunger to improve, and a great attitude both on and off the field, he would be an excellent addition to any club seeking a high-quality top-order batter and dynamic team man.
