Obuya Robinson is a highly ambitious top order batter, currently playing for the Ugandan national team.

A driven young man, Obuya has started to establish himself as a regular in his countries T20 team. At the time of writing he has 23 T20I caps and is starting to become a fixture at that level.

A classy top order batter and strong fielder, Obuya featured in the 2024 T20I Cricket World Cup, a proud moment for the young man. He played against major international teams such as the West Indies and New Zealand and credits these experiences as some of his best learning and is keen to use it as a drive to elevate his game to greater heights. Facing an attack featuring, Akeal Hosein, Andre Russell and Alzarri Joseph, it is clear to see why he feels this experience was so valuable.

Now established in his national team, Obuya is looking to expand his opportunities globally and has targeted a season as an overseas professional in 2025. He is a top guy and someone who is very keen for an opportunity to showcase his skills. He would be a pleasure to host for any cricket club next summer.
