Ollie Booth is a talented seam bowling all-rounder from Yorkshire, England.

Booth is a front line seamer who bowls with decent pace and good control, he is also a more than handy right handed middle order batter.

At club level the youngster plays for the famous Doncaster Town Cricket Club in the strong Yorkshire Premier League, where he has played most of his cricket in the 2nd XI side (in a 1st Team league) last year and also made his 1st XI debut.

Booth attends Hill House Independent School, which has recently been given the title of 'Independent Secondary School of the year in the North'. Where he obtained a sports scholarship to play cricket at the school & has been appointed captain of the cricket team for the upcoming summer season and will be leading the team on a tour in Dubai in February 2025.

The talented youngster is certainly a player to watch moving forward. Off the pitch he is a keen and qualified coach, and an active member of the coaching structure at his club. He is also a qualified football referee.

He is now keen to play overseas this winter.
