Oliver Chandler-Evans is an upcoming wicketkeeper-batsman from Sydney, Australia.

The Aussie has the added benefit of holding a British Passport and currently plays in NSW Premier Cricket for the famous Mosman Cricket Club. Oliver currently plays for the 3rd Grade side after finishing his studies and is eager to work his way through the ranks.

Chandler-Evans is a jack of all trades being a fully qualified coach, he works for Cricket NSW coaching in schools and is also a part-time groundsman, and regularly coaches at the SCG before BBL games on the pitch. Oliver is a fresh off his maiden UK season in the Liverpool Comp, where he played for Fleetwood Hesketh (2nd XI) where he scored over 600 runs at 33.

The Aussie is has accommodation sorted in Worcester so keen to find a club there! No doubt a handy recruit for any club in the area.
