Oliver Lee is a seam bowler from London, United Kingdom.

At club level, Oliver represents Banstead Cricket Club, one of the leading clubs in the Surrey Cricket Championship. He currently captains the Club's Second XI and guided the side to the Surrey Championship Division One title in 2024, highlighting his leadership qualities and influence within the squad.

A consistent performer with the ball, Lee is closing in on 100 Second XI league wickets for the club, currently sitting on 93 wickets at an average of 25.24.

A passionate and committed cricketer, Oliver is eager to fully immerse himself into his chosen club environment as he and his partner prepare to make a permanent move to Sydney for their professional careers.

With accommodation and employment already secured independently, Oliver presents a hassle-free overseas option for clubs seeking a reliable and experienced seam bowler for the upcoming season.

A strong club cricketer with leadership experience and long-term availability, Oliver Lee would be a valuable addition to any side looking to strengthen their squad both on and off the field.
