Ollie Salt, a spin bowling all-rounder from Somerset, England.

Oli currently represents Taunton Deane Cricket Club, competing in the Somerset Cricket League, where he is a regular feature in the Club's Second XI and is pushing hard for consistent First XI selection. Standing at 6ft 3", Oli uses his height to generate extra bounce and drift as an off-spinner, making him a genuine wicket-taking option in the middle overs.

With the bat, Oli adds value as a middle to lower order aggressor, looking to take the game to the opposition from ball one and contribute with valuable late-order runs.

The Englishman gained valuable overseas experience during the 2023/24 season in Victoria, Australia, where he played for Irrewarra Red Backs. He enjoyed a highly successful campaign, finishing as the second leading run-scorer and third leading wicket-taker for the Club.

Eager to return to the Southern Hemisphere for the 2025/26 season, Oli is keen to continue developing his game and immerse himself fully in his chosen Club's culture. No doubt, he will be a handy addition for any Club seeking an enthusiastic and committed all-rounder who will contribute both on and off the field.
