Paddy Hopkins is an attacking wicketkeeper-batter from Leicestershire, United Kingdom.

He represents Shepshed Cricket Club in the Leicestershire and Rutland Premier League, where he has established himself as a prominent First XI player since moving from his home club, Newtown Linford Cricket Club, four seasons ago.

Last season, Paddy amassed over 400 runs at an average of 27.69, including three half-centuries, with a highest score of 72 against his former club. Behind the stumps, he claimed over 30 dismissals, underlining his reliability and sharpness with the gloves.

A passionate and competitive cricketer, Paddy leaves everything on the field and thrives on the contest. Currently serving as vice-captain, he demonstrates strong leadership qualities both on and off the pitch.

As a batter, Hopkins prides himself on reading the situation of the game. He has the ability to change gears when required and shift momentum in his side's favour, a valuable trait in all formats of the game.

Looking ahead to a big 12 months, Paddy is determined to build on last season's foundation before broadening his horizons with a spell in the Southern Hemisphere. He is eager to fully immerse himself in his host club's culture, contributing positively both on and off the field while playing an active role within the club's wider community.

An energetic, competitive, and proven performer, Paddy Hopkins would be a valuable addition to any club seeking a wicketkeeper-batter for the 2026/27 season.
