Patrick Moore is an impressive all-rounder (seam) from Sydney, Australia.

The Aussie is a genuine all-rounder, and for the majority of his career has opened the batting or batted in the top order (he did last year in NSW Premier Cricket). Moore is a fluent right handed batsman, and also a front line right arm seamer who bowls with good pace and control.

The all-rounder is a product of the famous Hawkesbury Cricket Club who play in NSW Premier Cricket, where he had is debut in the 1st Grade side back in the 2019/20 season. Moore has been opening the bowling in first grade and has also bowled first change for the last 2 season's, last season he took 22 wickets in First Grade, this year has currently taken 14 wickets half way through the season at an average of just under 18.

Opening the batting last season in PG's (u21s) the Aussie also averaged nearly 40. The Aussie is also a Cricket Australia Level 1 coach so keen to get involved in the the junior coaching system at any club he joins. Moore also represented NSW at 17s level in the National Championships, and was selected for the 19s side also, but the comp was cancelled due to Covid.

The Aussie spent the UK 2024 season in London playing for Winchmore Hill, and excelled with nearly 1000 league runs at 72 which included 3 hundreds, and also took 42 wickets at 18 for the 1st Team. Not to mention the Aussie was an integral part of the junior coaching programme.

The impressive all-rounder will head back to the UK for 2025, having signed with Hornsey Cricket Club.
