Prayash Singh is a genuine all-rounder who exploded onto the Indian domestic circuit last summer.

Having taken figures of 4/51 on his return to one-day cricket for Odisha in November 2022, he would earn his Ranji Trophy debut the following month taking 3/66 against Haryana.

Roll on the New Year and Singh would belt his maiden first-class century, a magnificent 104 from 141 balls against Nagaland.

Coming in at number 8, the talented all-rounder struck 15 boundaries, and a six, in his 158-run partnership with fellow CricX client Shantanu Mishra.

He would then push successive tons in his next match, falling just short (73 from 101 balls) against the star-studded Himachal Pradesh side.

Singh would conclude the 2022/23 Ranji season with 237 runs at 39.50 alongside impressive white ball numbers of 12 wickets at 30.41 (List A) and 5 wickets at 19.20 (T20)

Recommended by none other than Indian legend, Wasim Jaffer, Singh represents an exciting seam bowling all-rounder option for the future.

The Odisha star all-rounder showed his skills abroad in 2023 playing for Skelmanthorpe in the strong Drakes Huddersfield Cricket League. He was a stand-out in the League hitting 690 runs at 32.86 alongside 54 wickets at 17.44.

Due to OCA commitments, Singh isn't available in 2024 but is eager to return to the UK again in future.
