Rahmanullah Zadran is an exciting top-order batter playing for Band-e-Amir Dragons in Afghanistan’s domestic competitions. A former Afghanistan U19 World Cup player (2020), Zadran was the side’s third-highest run-scorer, featuring alongside now-internationals like Ibrahim Zadran, Fazalhaq Farooqi, and Noor Ahmad.

Zadran debuted in first-class cricket during the 2017/18 season, scoring 310 runs at 34.44, and has since gone from strength to strength. His breakthrough came in 2021/22, where he starred across formats—349 runs at 43.62 (FC) and 239 runs at 79.66 (List A)—topping the run charts for Mis Ainak Region.

He followed up with consistent seasons in 2022 and 2023, the latter being a standout year with 474 runs at 52.66, including a career-best 152*. In 2025, he bounced back from a modest campaign to post 476 runs at 59.50, with a new high score of 170*. His domestic form has now earned him a call-up to Afghanistan’s Test squad.

With a solid track record, international experience, and a hunger to progress, Zadran is targeting a UK club stint in 2026 to further his development—keen to follow the path of fellow Afghan stars making their mark abroad. A genuine talent with a growing reputation, he comes highly recommended for next summer.
