Rahul Dagar is an incredibly talented batter who has played 26 matches for the star-studded Haryana side in India's domestic competitions.

Playing alongside India stars including Yuzvendra Chahal, Jayant Yadav, and Mohit Sharma, the middle-order batter has racked up 794 runs with a century (114) and 5 fifties to date.

Dagar, who comes highly recommended by legendary CricX client, Mahesh Rawat, has been particularly dominant in the Vijay Hazare Trophy (List A), hitting 376 runs at 47.

Dagar made his first-class debut in October 2015 but only featured in 4 Ranji Trophy matches prior to his strong 2018/19 season that included his maiden century against Tripura (Dec 2018).

Despite his success, across first-class and List A formats, Dagar was surprisingly overlooked for Haryana selection last summer (2019/20), therefore, he is eager to spend a season plying his trade in the UK in 2022.

A high-class professional, Dagar is looking to dominate in what would be his maiden stint abroad next summer. As it stands, his 5 first-class games within the last 36 months (to qualify for a International Sportsperson Visa visa) will lapse on the 6th December 2021, therefore he is eager to not only organise a club, but his governing body endorsement prior to then.
