Rahul Shukla is a seasoned pace-bowling all-rounder who has been a force in Indian domestic cricket for over a decade. Since his Ranji Trophy debut in 2009, he has represented Jharkhand with distinction, earned IPL contracts with Mumbai Indians, Rajasthan Royals, and Delhi Daredevils, and featured for East Zone and India A.

A genuine quick who regularly clocks 140kph, Shukla is also a powerful lower-order batter. He has amassed over 300 wickets and 1,000+ runs across formats, with standout performances including 7-106 and 85*(FC), 6-33 and 50 (List A), and 5-36 and 17*(T20).

Having recently played in the inaugural World Championship of Legends for the title-winning Indian side in 2024, Shukla is now seeking overseas club opportunities as he transitions toward the final phase of his career. A proven match-winner with elite-level experience, he's set to be a valuable asset for the 2026 season.

Note: Shukla's eligibility window for UK club cricket (based on 5 FC matches in the last 36 months) remains open until 20 Dec 2025.
