Raj Choudhary, a talented left arm spinner with experience across all three formats for Railways in Indian Domestic Cricket.

A current Railways professional, Raj has already gained valuable experience across all three formats of Indian domestic cricket, demonstrating his ability to adapt his bowling to different conditions and match situations.

His introduction to First Class cricket has been particularly impressive, with Raj claiming an outstanding 31 wickets in just six appearances, including three five-wicket hauls. A remarkable start to his red-ball career, these performances highlight his ability to consistently trouble quality opposition batters and produce match-defining spells.

Across his professional career to date, Raj has already accumulated over 60 wickets in Indian domestic cricket, establishing himself as an increasingly important member of the Railways bowling attack and further enhancing his reputation as a high-quality left-arm spinner.

Having progressed rapidly through the Indian domestic circuit, Raj remains highly ambitious and determined to continue developing his craft, with his sights firmly set on establishing himself further within professional cricket and pushing towards higher honours.

Having already made a significant impression in Indian domestic cricket, Raj is now eager to embark on his first overseas campaign in the Northern Hemisphere during the 2027 season, where he hopes to experience different playing conditions, challenge himself in a new cricketing environment and continue developing his game.
