Rajesh Bishnoi is a seasoned left-arm spin bowling all-rounder who made waves in the 2022/23 Ranji Trophy season. Representing Meghalaya in his debut season for the side, Bishnoi finished as one of the Plate Division's standout performers—claiming 39 wickets at an impressive average of 15.58, including multiple five-wicket hauls.

A cricketer with plenty of experience, Bishnoi had previously played for Arunachal Pradesh in 2021/22, where he made a strong impact in white-ball formats, delivering key performances in both the Vijay Hazare Trophy and the Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy.

It was during his time with Meghalaya, however, that his all-round credentials truly came to the fore. In a standout match against Bihar, Bishnoi scored his maiden first-class century (106), then turned the game with the ball—bagging five wickets in the final innings to seal a thrilling 15-run win for his side.

Over recent seasons, the left-armer has rediscovered the form that initially saw him break into the Rajasthan setup back in 2016/17. Although first-team opportunities were limited with Rajasthan, his move east has sparked a career resurgence, proving his class in both red and white-ball formats.

Despite his outstanding 2022/23 campaign, Bishnoi hasn't featured in Indian domestic cricket since, and is now eager for a new challenge abroad. He's actively seeking a UK club opportunity for the 2026 season—offering a wealth of experience, reliable left-arm spin, and genuine lower-order batting strength.

A high-quality overseas option for any club looking to bolster its spin stocks and batting depth.

Note: Rajesh's eligibility window for UK club cricket (based on 5 FC matches in the last 36 months) remains open until 20 Dec 2025.
