Ramesh Lakmal (34) is an experienced and top quality all-rounder from Auckland, New Zealand.

A left-handed top-order batter, who also bowls right-arm seam, Ramesh is a terrific cricketer with a long history of playing club cricket to the highest standard all over the world. Currently playing for Hibiscus Coast in the Auckland Premier Grade Competition, the 34-year-old has topped the averages for a number of years after joining the club seven years ago.

After some stellar performances in recent years, Ramesh represented Auckland A during the 2019 season. With overseas experience in England, Australia, New Zealand & Denmark behind him, Lakmal has had a distinguished career so far. Performances abroad include, 24 matches in Australia, totalling 681 runs and 46 wickets back in 2015/16. Travelling to England for two stints between 2015 & 2016, Ramesh racked up 2200 runs & 113 wickets during his two seasons at Derbyshire based side, Heanor Town CC.

Originally from Columbo, Sri Lanka, Ramesh decided to settle in Auckland and has continues to play for Hibiscus. Scoring 790 runs and taking 28 wickets during the 2022/23 season, he has continued to dominate Auckland Grade Cricket for a number of years.

Also a keen coach, Ramesh is a Sri Lankan Level 1 & NZC Level 2 qualified individual. Currently running a large section of Hibiscus junior section, the Aucklander is a massive influence both on and off the field. Now seeking a stint in either Holland or Ireland, the terrific all-rounder will be in high demand and certainly someone who we expect to have a big impact for his chosen club.
