Ramon Bailey is an exciting left-arm quick from London, England.

A left-arm fast bowler, the 22-year-old bowls at good pace and currently plays Club Cricket for Sheperd's Bush in the Middlesex Premier League. In 2022, the Southern based side finished 2nd in the League, with Ramon contributing an impressive 40 wickets, each at an average of 17.90. This included 2 five-wicket-hauls and a best return of 6-38.

A cricketer with ambitions of playing professional cricket, Ramon has been part of the Loughborough University performance programme since 2020. Representing Loughborough UCCE, Ramon has featured in a number of 3-day games against 4 first counties (Leicestershire, Lancashire, Hampshire, and Nottinghamshire).

The London born seamer is an effective red ball and white ball bowler who often opens the bowling. Also a capable lower order batter, the right-hander has been involved in training sessions with Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire County Cricket Club throughout the winter and looks set to play 2nd XI County Cricket this summer.

Also the holder of an ECB Level 2 coaching badge, Ramon is hoping a winter of competitive cricket in Australia will further develop his all-round game as well contributing off the pitch for his chosen club.
