Rhiannon Knowling-Davies, is a highly skilled bowling all-rounder from Nottinghamshire, England.

With an impressive pedigree in the women's game. A product of Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club since the age of 12, she made her senior debut at just 14. Over the past five years, she has been a key part of The Blaze Academy and Senior Team and, ahead of the 2025 season Rhiannon, made the move to Derbyshire County Cricket Club and made an instant impact across the course of the season with the ball in hand.

Rhiannon's performances in County Cricket earned her a call-up to represent England XI in the European Cricket Championships, further showcasing her talent on the international stage.

Alongside her playing career, Rhiannon is a passionate ECB Core Coach and is keen to take on coaching and mentoring roles, helping develop the next generation of male and female cricketers at her future club.

Now looking to elevate her game and push for higher honours in the sport, she sees a season Down Under as the perfect opportunity to further her development.

A fantastic addition for any club looking to strengthen its women's section ahead of the 2026/27 season.

Rhiannon is now set to head over to Australia after signing with Anglesea CC.
