Rhodri Davies (29), an experienced wicketkeeper-batsman from Wales.

Davies has amassed over 150 appearances for his hometown club, Ammanford CC, competing in the South Wales Premier Cricket League. A former Cricket Wales (Glamorgan) pathway player during his junior years, he has forged a successful senior career in ECB Premier League cricket in Wales.

Rhodri has experienced domestic success throughout a trophy-laden period from 2012 to 2022, most notably in 2018 when he played a key role in securing two domestic cup victories, including a national T20 title. That season, stepping up as a top-order batsman, he amassed 560 runs across all competitions at an average of 28.

Regarded as one of the best wicketkeepers in the South Wales Premier League, Rhodri's safe hands behind the stumps and sharp reflexes in the field make him a vital asset. In 2024, he claimed 22 victims with the gloves while adding 200 runs with the bat, including a half-century, often guiding the lower order. With over 3,000 career runs at an average of 20.36 and more than 150 dismissals to his name, his experience and reliability speak for themselves.

Beyond his playing abilities, Rhodri has a passion for coaching, particularly in wicketkeeping and fielding, having worked with high-quality coaches during his time with Ammanford and Glamorgan.

Now eager to take his game abroad for the first time, Rhodri is looking to immerse himself in club life overseas, bringing his wealth of experience and competitive edge to his next challenge.
