Riaz Hassan is an explosive right-handed opening batter for Afghanistan’s ODI team, forging a strong partnership alongside Rahmanullah Gurbaz. Since his debut in January 2022—highlighted by a half-century against the Netherlands—he has impressed with quickfire starts against Bangladesh, Pakistan, and South Africa.

Hassan’s rise was built on standout performances at youth and domestic levels, including dominating the 2021 Ghazi Amanullah Khan Regional One-Day Tournament (56.33 average) and excelling in first-class cricket with a 79.50 average and a high score of 196 in the Ahmad Shah Abdali Tournament.

He became a regular in Afghanistan A, shining in the 2023 Asian Cricket Council Men’s Emerging Cup (62.33 average) and scoring two centuries plus a 74 in a 2024 series against Sri Lanka A. These achievements, alongside his growing international impact, mark him as a cornerstone of Afghanistan’s white-ball future.

In addition to his batting, Hassan is an accomplished wicketkeeper. Following his maiden franchise stint with Dhaka Capitals in the Bangladesh Premier League (early 2025), he is now keen to explore global opportunities to further his promising career.
